

Meet Your Presenter

---

David Kraiker has worked at the Census Bureau for 24 years—first as a Geographer In the New York Regional Office, and more recently As a Data Dissemination Specialist.

Previously he worked as a cartographer for private mapping companies as well as being a French instructor.

David holds a BA from Clark University, A MSc from Rutgers-Newark and the premier degré diploma from the Université de Caen (France).

